TRIUMPH OVER TRAGEDY

After 30+ years of marriage, this Christian sista finds herself moving forward to divorce her husband who has committed adultery time and time and time again. She has fought the good fight but this guy just won't turn from his ungodly ways. So – after much prayer and heartache, Godly counseling and wisdom, she has received the release.

I can only imagine her grief, agony, and utter pain in this season of her life. It can be overwhelming.

BUT GOD IS.

Somehow, He makes a way out of no way and opens doors that provide a peace of mind and that fills your heart with contentment. One of my personal favorite reminders is to whisper "It is Well, With My Soul" and let it penetrate deep within.

Sistas, I am certain that our Lord God has equipped us to be conquerors and to declare and to embrace #TriumphOverTragedy! His presence in our lives will sustain us IF we allow it.

Through unimaginable trials and tribulations, we must hold on – real tight – to the undisputable truth that "God is our refuge and our strength – a present help in time of need."

There is hope and brighter and better days are just on the horizon. We must run this race with patience and remember who we are and who we serve.

To help us get through these challenges, your friends and colleagues at Women Grow Strong have steadily helped support women and children who have found themselves with little or no food, out of a job, and in need of some help. Through the small but much needed contributions and generous donations, we continue to provide clothing, shelter, food, training assistance and prayer support to those who need it most.

Our personal, direct and one-on-one support continues to be a major factor in our ministry efforts. Our goal is never to showboat or showcase our work, so it is seen by others, but in appreciation of gratitude with God's heartfelt love for life.

We have been, and prayerfully will continue to be blessed with the ability to support those in need. I hope that each of us makes it a point to share, to care and when possible – to give -of your time, your talent, and your treasures. God honors faithfulness.

GEARING UP FOR SISTAS WHO SUCCEED 2023

In 2022, Women Grow Strong partnered with Black PR Wire, Inc. and WAMR-DB The Woman Station, based in Atlanta, and created a national and international Sistas Who Succeed on-live webinar. It featured powerhouse business women leaders from all over the country.

In 2023, Women Grow Strong, Inc., in partnership with Sonshine Communications and Black PR Wire will launch a special Sistas Soiree. This grand affair will be part of Sonshine's 30th Anniversary celebration, and will honor 30 Sistas who are making the difference of a lifetime in their communities.

Details on the Sistas Soiree will be released in the new year, so stay tuned.

WOMEN GROW STRONG GUIDING PRINCIPLE

The guiding scripture/principle of WINGS has been developed from the following passage of the Bible, located in the book of Philippians 4:12-13 (NIV)

"I know what it is to be in need, and I know what it is to have plenty. I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. I can do everything through him who gives me strength."

Women Grow Strong purchased and provided over 200 backpacks for school children.

Women Grow Strong sponsored the fashion segment at the Women Mean Business (WMBI) Conference
